

International workshop on “Finite verbs as constructions.
Usage-based cognitive linguistic perspectives”

24–25, June 2024
1088 Budapest, Múzeum krt. 4/A
Kari Kistanácsterem

PROGRAM

24 June

9.45–10.00: Opening

Chair: Szilárd Tátrai

10.00–10.40 Jaakko Leino: The Finnish finite verb inside out

10.40 Discussion

11.00–11.40 András Imrényi: Self-similarity and multiple dimensions. The verb in a cognitive dependency grammar of Hungarian

11.40 Discussion

12.30 Lunch break

Chair: Mária Ladányi

14.00–14.40 László Palágyi: Describing generalizations of verbal derivational constructions

14.40 Discussion

15.00–15.40 Nikolett F. Gulyás: Challenges in the description of Komi-Permyak verbal categories

15.40 Discussion

16.00–16.40 Bernadett Modrián-Horváth: Productivity and paradigmaticity of a German construction: the case of the stative passive

16.40 Discussion

17.30 Workshop meeting

25 June

Chair: Krisztina Laczkó

10.00–10.40 Tuomas Huumo: Epistemic grounding in the Finnish finite verb construction

10.40 Discussion

11.00–11.40 Gábor Tolesvai Nagy: Semantic integration and epistemic grounding in the Hungarian verb constructions

11.40 Discussion

12.30 Lunch break

Chair: András Imrényi

14.00–14.40 Ilona Tragel: The role of finite verbs in directing behaviour and organising interpersonal relations: the case of Estonian verbs on public signage

14.40 Discussion

15.00–15.40 Gábor Simon: Word form or lemma? Methodological case study with the from–to construction

Closing